Hardware Technician

Looking for a technician for our hardware development department. Ideal candidate is 25 to 40 years old, with experience in PCB assembly, soldering, quality control and organizing components warehouse.

Required Skills and Experience

• University or Technological Institute Degree in Electronics Engineering or Automation

• Experience with PCB design

• Experience in SMD Hardware Assembly

• Knowledge of Relational Databases

• Working experience and knowledge of LabVIEW will be a plus

• Ability to work in a team environment, manage assigned tasks and schedules and meet project deadlines

• Capable of learning new technologies quickly and efficiently

• Excellent verbal and written communication skills

• Fulfilled military obligations